

Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd Access to Information Manual (In accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000) ("Manual")

Policy Statement

It is Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd's policy to conduct its operations in compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements. This Access to Information Manual ("the Manual") regulates access to information and records owned, held by or otherwise under the control of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd and the release of any such information or records of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd's directors, officers, employees, agents or anyone acting on its behalf or authority. This Manual should be read in conjunction with, and is aimed at ensuring compliance with, the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ("PAIA" and/or "the Act") and Vodacom Group policy relating to meeting regulatory requirements and the Vodacom (Pty) Ltd Compliance Policy.

Application

This Manual applies to information and records owned, held by or otherwise under the control of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd and the release of any such information or records.

Objective

The objectives of this Manual are to:

- provide a non-exhaustive list of information, records and other details held by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- set out the procedure for requesting information or records in terms of the PAIA and the Protection of Personal Information Act No 4 of 2013 ("POPIA") as well as the grounds on which a request may be refused;
- define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted; and
- align with the requirements of POPIA.

1. Introduction

1.1 PAIA requirements relating to access to information held by a Private Body

Section 51 of the Act requires a Private Body to compile a manual setting out the procedure and requirements to be adhered to in seeking to obtain access to information held by that Private Body. The section also stipulates the minimum requirements a manual has to comply with. To this end section 51 of the Act requires the manual to contain, amongst others, the following:

- The postal and street address, phone, and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the Head of the Private Body;
- A description of the PAIA guide developed by the Human Rights Commission, and how to obtain access to it;
- Contact details of the Head of the Private Body;
- Categories of records available without a person making a formal PAIA request, if any;
- A description of the records available in accordance with other legislation;
- Sufficient detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of the Private Body;
- A description of the categories of subjects and of the information or categories of information;
- A description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject,
- Such other information as may be prescribed.

1.2 POPIA requirements pertaining to the processing of information

- Purpose of processing

In terms of POPIA, Personal Information must be processed for a specific, explicitly defined, and lawful purpose. The purpose for which Personal Information is processed by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will depend on the nature of the Personal Information and the particular Data Subject. This purpose is ordinarily disclosed in writing to the Data Subject at the time the Personal Information is collected.

- Access to Information

POPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon adequate proof of identity, request the Responsible Party to confirm, free of charge, whether or not the Responsible Party holds Personal Information about the Data Subject and may request a record or description of such information, including information about the identity or categories of third parties who have or have had access to such information.

Further, POPIA provides that where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, the Responsible Party must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the Requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

- Categories of Data Subjects

Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd holds information and records relating to the following individuals and entities:

- a) employees / personnel of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- b) clients/customers of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- c) any third party and/or supplier with whom Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd conducts its business;
- d) contractors of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- e) partners and agents
- f) service providers of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd.

(This list of categories of Data Subjects is non-exhaustive)

- The categories of recipients to whom the information is supplied

Depending on the nature of the requested Information, Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd may supply information or records to the following categories of recipients:

- a) statutory oversight bodies, regulators (such as the Information Regulator), law enforcement agencies or judicial commissions of enquiry making a request for information
- b) any court, administrative or judicial forum, arbitration, statutory commission, or ombudsman making a request for data or discovery in terms of the applicable rules;
- c) South African Revenue Services, or another similar authority;
- d) anyone making a successful application for access in terms of PAIA, to the extent that such access is partially or wholly permitted in terms of PAIA, as amended by POPIA;
- e) any third party and/or supplier with whom Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd conducts its business;
- f) contractors of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- g) partners and agents Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;
- h) service providers of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd;

- i) third parties that we use to provide you with marketing and advertisements; and
- j) companies in the Vodacom (Pty) Ltd and Vodafone Group, including their subsidiaries.

- Planned trans-border flows of information

Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd can send or transfer Personal Information of Data Subjects to Vodafone group companies and/or third parties who are authorised to process personal information on Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd's behalf, beyond the borders of the countries in which Personal Information is collected in order to achieve the purpose for which the Personal Information was collected and Processed, including for Processing and storage by such authorised third parties. Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will only engage in the cross-border transfer of information if one of the following conditions are met (as approved by the Privacy Officer):

- The recipient is subject to existing legislation in his /her/its country or to binding corporate rules or to a binding agreement that provides an adequate level of protection for the personal information that is substantially similar to the data protection laws applicable to South Africa;
 - The Applicable Data Subject has consented to such cross-border transfer;
 - The transfer is necessary for the conclusion and/or performance of a contract between Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd and the Data Subject;
 - The transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract entered into, in the interest of the Data Subject, between Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd and the relevant Vodacom group company or the authorised third party; or
 - The transfer is to the benefit of the Data Subject and must take place in circumstances under which it is not reasonably possible to obtain the Data Subject's consent and if it were reasonably possible to obtain such consent, the Data Subject would be likely to give it.
 - The processing of Personal Information in a foreign jurisdiction may be subject to the laws of the country in which it is held, and may be subject to disclosure to the Governments, Courts of law, Enforcement or Regulatory Agencies of such other country, pursuant to the laws of such country. Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will ensure the adequate protection of your Personal Information where such disclosures are required.
- Security measures are implemented to ensure the confidentiality and privacy of the information which is to be processed.

Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd is committed to implementing leading data security safeguards. For this reason, Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd has specialised security teams who constantly review and improve its measures to secure the integrity and confidentiality of your Personal Information by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect it from unauthorised or unlawful access, accidental loss, damage, disclosure or destruction.

If Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd has an agreement with another organisation to provide it with services on its behalf to process your Personal Information, then Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will ensure that they have appropriate security measures in place that are equal to the security measures implemented by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd and only process your Personal Information in the way we have authorised them to. These organisations will not be entitled to use your Personal Information for their own purposes. If necessary, our security teams will audit them to ensure they meet our security requirements.

Communications over the internet (such as emails) are not secure unless they have been encrypted. Further, your communications may go through several countries before being delivered, as this is the nature of the internet. Consequently, we cannot accept responsibility for any unauthorised access or loss of Personal Information that is beyond our control.

4. The Human Rights Commission PAIA Guide

The Human Rights Commission PAIA guide provides information on PAIA. This guide will assist people in making requests for information under PAIA and provides examples on how PAIA has been used in the past to advance human rights. It does this by providing:

- An easy to understand overview of PAIA;
- A breakdown of how PAIA can be used to advance other human rights;
- A list of types of information which can be requested using PAIA; and
- A step-by-step guide on how to use PAIA to make an information request.

6. List of Records and Information

The categories of information listed are not exhaustive but are merely meant to give a broad indication of the information subject and categories held by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd, without specification.

A category may therefore contain sub-categories and sub-sets of information, which are not specifically listed. (For purposes of the list of records and information held by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd see Appendix A: Categories and Types of Information).

7. Who May Request Information or Records?

a. The purpose for which Information is required

The Act provides that a person may only request information in terms of the Act if that information is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

- POPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon adequate proof of identity, request the Responsible Party to confirm, free of charge, whether or not the Responsible Party holds Personal Information about the Data Subject all the information it holds about the Data Subject and may request a record or description of access to such information, including information about the identity or categories of third parties who have or have had access to such information. Must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service
- May require that the requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee

b. Categories of Requestors

The capacity under which a Requester requests documentation/ information will determine the category he/she/it falls in. Please note that the Requester category has a bearing on the conditions of access to the information.

Requesters have been classified into four categories:

- A Personal Requester: requests information about himself/herself/itself.

- A Representative Requester: requests information relating to and on behalf of someone else.
- A Third-Party Requester: requests information about another person.
- A Public Body: requests information in the public interest.

8. Request Procedure

a. Form of Request

Any request for information in terms of the Act must be submitted in terms of Form C (a copy of the form is enclosed as Annexure B hereto). These forms are available on request from customer care and upon payment of a prescribed fee (if applicable). The forms can also be downloaded from www.vodacom.co.za.

Form C must be completed in full and returned to the Information Officer at the address referred to in paragraph 5 above together with any other information that may be required in order to consider and decide on the request. A request which does not comply with the formalities contained in this Manual will be referred back to the Requester with advice on the necessary steps for compliance. This includes Forms that are not completed in full.

The Affidavit contained in Form C must also be completed in full and signed by a Commissioner of Oaths,

b. Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the Requester. Therefore, a Requester will, in addition to Form C, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of their Identity Document, Driver's Licence or Passport.

c. Procedure to be followed by the Requester

The following procedure must be followed when requesting information and/or documents:

- The request must be sent in the prescribed Form C accompanied by the prescribed affidavit (Annexure B). (The form can be downloaded from Vodacom's website at www.vodacom.co.za or requested from the Information Officer at the address as set out in paragraph 5 of the Manual).
- The request must be submitted to the Information Officer and sent to the address, fax number or electronic mail address as set out in paragraph 5 of the Manual.
- The Requestor must provide proof of identity of the person requesting the record
- If the request is made on behalf of another person, the Requestor must provide proof of the capacity in which he/she/it is making the request.

In instances where information or records pertaining to any of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd 's products (other than marketing information) is requested, the Requester will have to prove he/she is the customer of any Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd lending and/or payment products to which the requested information or records relate. The Requestor may also be required to provide further particulars to prove he/she is a customer of any Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd lending and/or payment products or to provide an explanation why access to the identified records is required. In instances where the request is made on behalf of another person then the Requester must also submit proof of capacity in which the request is made and authorisation by the owner of the record/information that such record or information should be provided.

Note: Information will not be furnished unless a person clearly provides sufficient particulars to enable the company to identify the right the Requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation of why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

The following procedure will be followed by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd after receipt of the request for access:

- Once a request is made in the prescribed Form C, Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will send an acknowledgment of receipt within five (5) days of receiving the request
- The Requestor will receive notice from Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd to pay a search fee of R50.00 excluding VAT (if applicable)
- The prescribed fee must be paid before the request is processed
- Payment of this fee should be made as directed by the Head of Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd
- After receiving payment of the search fee Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will then make a decision in respect of the request and will notify the Requestor of the decision
- Where the request is approved then the Requestor will receive an invoice for payment of the requested documentation (charged at R0.75c per page, excluding VAT)
- Should the request be refused, the Requestor may lodge an application or appeal in accordance with paragraph 11 of the Manual against the refusal of the request or payment of the requested fee and this will be advised in the notice to be sent to the Requestor (in terms of section 56(3) of the PAIA).
- If the request is granted then the Requestor might be required to pay a further access fee for the search, reproduction and preparation of the record as well as for the time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and to prepare the record for disclosure to the Requestor (in terms of section 54(6) of the PAIA).
- The fee schedule can be downloaded from the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development's website at www.justice.gov.za

d. Guidance for completing Form C

The Requestor can contact Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd Information Officer at the address as set out in paragraph 5 of the Manual for guidance on how to complete Form C, the documents that need to be submitted or applicable fees.

9. Data Subject Participation

POPIA confers the following rights to Data Subjects:

- To withdraw his/her consent at any time, provided that the lawfulness of the processing of personal information before such withdrawal or processing of personal information on the basis of another lawful ground for processing will not be affected;
- Object, any time, to the processing of personal information in the prescribed manner and on reasonable grounds relating to his or her particular situation or for purposes of direct marketing other than direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications;
- Request the Responsible Party to either correct or delete personal information of the Data Subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or obtained unlawfully; or Destroy or delete a record of personal information about the Data Subject that the Responsible Party is no longer authorised to retain.

10. Request Fees

Section 54 of the Act entitles a Private Body to levy a prescribed request fee to a Requester before further processing the request. The fees that may be charged have been published by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and are displayed below.¹

11. Granting or Refusal of Requests

All requests complying with the requirements set out above will be processed. Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will give the Requester a written notice of the decision within 30 days after receiving the completed Form C. In case of a request being refused, the notification will include the reasons for the refusal. Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd may extend the 30-day notice period for a further period not exceeding 30 days due to the nature of the request and the amount of time required to gather the requested information. The Requester will however be given notice of the extension prior to the expiry of the 30-day period and provided with reasons for the extension. If a request for access to Personal Information is made and part of that information may or must be refused in terms of POPIA or PAIA, every other part will be disclosed.

If the request for access is granted, then Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will advise the Requestor on the following:

- the prescribed fee for accessing the information or documentation
- payable deposit fee and balance outstanding
- the form in which access will be given
- the right to lodge an internal appeal against the access fee to be paid or the form of access to be granted.

If the request for access is refused then Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd will advise the Requestor about the reasons for refusal of access and may advise the Requestor to lodge an application with the Information Regulator against the refusal of the request after the Requestor has exhausted all Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd's internal appeal process.

Chapter 4 of the PAIA stipulates the following grounds for refusing requests for information:

- protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person
- protection of commercial information of a third party
- protection of certain confidential information of a third party
- protection of safety of individuals and protection of property
- protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings
- commercial information of the Private Body
- protection of research information of a third party and of the Private Body.

These grounds of refusal are also endorsed in section 23 of POPIA.

12. Appeal/ Lodgment of Complaints

The Act makes provision for the lodgment of a complaint against:

- Access fee charged or the form of access granted
- Refusal of the request to grant access
- Decision to extend the 30 days' period for granting the requested access
- Form in which access is granted

A Requestor aggrieved by Vodacom Payment Services (Pty) Ltd's decision or who wishes to lodge a complaint or appeal must follow this process:

A complaint or an internal appeal must:

- be lodged within 30 days after the decision is communicated to the Requestor;
- be delivered or sent to the address, fax or electronic mail address contained in paragraph 5 above;
- identify the subject of the complaint or internal appeal and state the reasons for the complaint or internal appeal;
- be accompanied by the prescribed appeal fee as prescribed in paragraph 10 above;
- specify a postal address, fax number or electronic mail for the return of the decision.

(see Annexure D for the copy of the form to be used in lodging the internal appeal)

Where, in addition to a written reply, the complainant/appellant wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner he/she/it must state that manner and provide the necessary particulars to be so informed. Where the complaint or internal appeal is lodged after the expiry of the 30 days period the Designated Information Officer, on good cause shown, allow the late lodgment of the complaint or internal appeal.

The complainant/appellant who is not happy with the decision of the internal process may lodge an application with the Information Regulator against the decision made within 30 days after the decision was communicated to him/her/it.

13. Other Information as may be Prescribed

Section 51(1)(f) of the Act grants the Minister powers to publish a notice prescribing any other information that a Private Body will have to disclose.

14. Availability of the Manual

- a) This manual is available for inspection during office hours and at no charge.
- b) Should you wish to obtain a copy of this manual or part thereto such copy can be obtained from either:
 - the address set out in paragraph 5 subject to payment of applicable fees (refer to heading 10); or
